

Wanted: Team-oriented communicator, skilled in detailed, persuasive writing.

Facilitate collaborative community projects that contribute to successful business operations, job creation, and desirable quality of life in Yellowstone County, Montana. Responsible for locating, researching and writing grant or loan applications to government, community, and business development programs for a variety of community and business development projects. Responsible for administration of, management of, and reporting on funded projects. Working knowledge of Federal, State and private foundation grant/loan programs a plus. Full-time salaried Community Development Specialist position with benefits.

Click here for a complete position description, or call Mary Lou @256-6871 to receive a copy by mail.

Submit letter of interest, along with writing sample and resume, to: Attention: Community Development Position; Big Sky EDA; 222 North 32nd Street, Suite 200; Billings, MT 59101-1948.

Position open until filled; review of applications begins March 19, 2010.